Really interesting. Rwanda – The whites all died from electronic broadcasts..... Then their assets were stolen. The whites will be looted across the US and the West using the same electronic methods, and dividing people into groups to murder each other. She describes being attacked by street lights sending frequencies after a student used his cellphone to trigger a broadcast. Smart meters are linked in to the same system so your own house can broadcast mood through the faucets and the lights in your home. Your children are being programmed through their 5G smartphones.

Yes Tap, although I have not had time to post much, I thought I must try and get this info out as it makes their end game much clearer. I Mention to people about the Lampposts but many reject it as nonsense. That is why we have so many road works everywhere disrupting the traffic where they are hardwiring 5G from the transmitters to powerful antennae in the lampposts under the guise of utility works! They are great deceivers -“we will make war by deception”!!

This is utterly grim. And, if true, it is hard to see how it can be stopped

I find it hard to believe that they will use a kill switch here in uk. Their plans include monetising all human transactions via their “Impact Capitalism”. That won’t work if there are no humans will it. They might want to cull certain parts of the human herd but which farmer wants to kill all his livestock? None that I know of

Whatever, I keep checking the progress of 5G to my semi-rural location and it’s not moving much nearer at the moment. The nearby urban areas are “outdoors only” which I guess means that they’ve not hard wired the street hubs yet

As for Smart meters then hell will freeze over before I get one of those. But my neighbours both sides are another matter. Both lots were confirmed covidians so I expect that they will probably have them already. So I hope that the inverse square law applies to SM, distance equals safety

Thanks for your comment Pete. One thing we shouldn't be, is fearful, as that is just what they want and being stressed with fear is not good for one's health. You are lucky being in a semi rural area. As regards the neighbours' smart meters – yes they can affect you but you can protect yourself with shungite – a special rock found only in Russia that has the ability to change bad frequencies into beneficial ones, My friend in the USA has bought one and has a protection radius of 5000 ft. Since installing it he and his wife have never felt better. They are more intent in killing off the white race as we are more difficult to control. As we die off they are replacing us with 3rd world population.

These Reptilians really have no sense of humour. No wonder they keep getting it all wrong.

I'm not fearful thanks, you are correct about it's health impact

I saw your post about shungite newensign, thank you. So I bought myself a shungite medallion which is round my neck when I'm not in bed. I'm missing the hairy chest but hey, you can't have everything 😊

Indeed Tap they do. They are getting desperate now as more and more people discover their deception that has been cleverly hidden in plain sight for centuries!
